(Together called as parties)

Scope & Objectives

This MOU is for making the arrangements for the practice lessons of the students doing their B.Ed in Special Education (LD) at SNDT College of Education, Pune by the said school. SNDT College of Education, Pune is one of the prestigious institutes for teachers' education.

The college has a long history of 71 years with an excellent track record. The past students of the college are well placed in various schools and performing at par. The college has always responded positively to the changes happening in the society at large and particularly in the field of education. The teaching at the college has included the discussion on the current topics and needs of the society. This time college is responding positively to the National Education Policy developed by the Government of India.

The National Education Policy, 2020 focuses on Inclusive Education. The concept of Inclusive Education expects to include children with special needs (CWSN) in all the mainstream schools without any kind of discrimination.

The concerned authorities and team of SNDT College of Education, Pune campus has decided to respond positively to this need. The policy of inclusive education can be implemented successfully only if schools have teachers who are specially trained to address the unique requirements of the children with special needs. The college has decided to start B.Ed in Special Education (LD) to address this need.

Whereas, school is established for imparting the education to all the children in between the age group of 6 to 18 years. For the last few years the student population of the school is approximately 300.

Roles & Responsibilities

The roles & responsibilities of the two parties as part of this MOU are as follows :

Responsibilities of the SNDT College of Education, Pune:

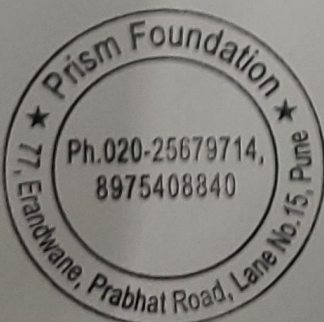

1. To follow the schedule for the practice lessons decided as per the mutual convenience.
2. To instruct the student teachers to be ready with all needed material for teaching.
3. To instruct the student teachers to deal with the students with utmost care and not to harm any student of the school either physically or emotionally. It must be noted that the student teacher who will use any kind of physical or emotional punishment for the students of the school will not be allowed to conduct practice lessons in the school.
4. To instruct student teachers to understand the difficulties of the children in detail and address the difficulties by implementing an Individual Education Plan.

Responsibilities of the school :

1. To provide the students for the practice lessons. The standards and number of the students in school will be decided earlier by the mutual convenience of both the parties.
2. To provide the decided classroom with all necessary infrastructure for the practice lessons.
3. To cooperate with student teachers in case of any emergency.
